READING · A2

Sarah's date

Name _____

1 What are the people in this photo doing?

2 Ask and answer

Talk with a partner.

1. Where do people usually go on a first date in your country?
2. Is online dating popular in your country?
3. What do you talk about on a first date?

3 Before you read: key words

Match each word to its meaning. Write the letter in the box.

☐ guess what?	a intending to do something in the future
☐ go out (with someone)	b a funny film about love
☐ planning to	c something you say before telling exciting news
☐ romantic comedy	d friendly and comfortable to talk with
☐ easy to talk to	e to spend romantic time together; to date

4 Read quickly. Did the date go well?

Read the dialogue in under a minute. Don't worry about every word. Circle one.

Good date	Bad date

Sarah and Priya

Sarah: Hey Priya, guess what? I went on a date last night!

Priya: Really? That's exciting! How did it go?

Sarah: It was really nice! We went to a nice café.

Priya: Oh, nice! What did he look like?

Sarah: Well, he's tall with brown hair and green eyes. And he has a beard.

Priya: Sounds nice! What did you do at the café?

Sarah: We talked a lot and had coffee. He's really funny and easy to talk to.

Priya: That sounds great! Did you like him?

Sarah: Yeah, I think so! We're planning to go out again next week. I need to think of what we will do!

Priya: That's wonderful, Sarah! I'm happy for you.

Sarah: Thanks, Priya! It was fun.

5 Read again and answer

1. What did Sarah do last night?

2. Where did Sarah and her date go?

3. How did Sarah describe the guy she went on a date with?

4. What did Sarah and her date do at the café?

5. How does Sarah feel about the date?

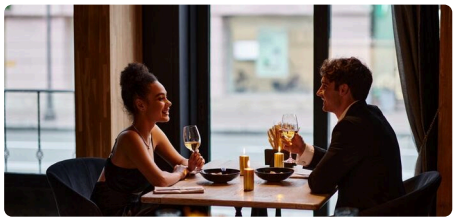

6. How does Priya feel about Sarah's date?

6 Where should Sarah go on her second date?

In groups, choose one place. Be ready to say why.

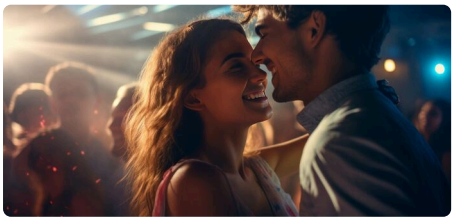

Cinema

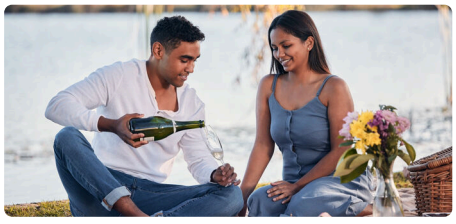

Restaurant

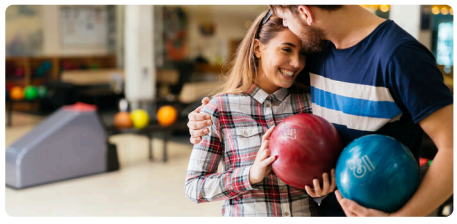

Museum

Concert

Picnic

Bowling

7 Justify your choice

1. Why do you think Sarah should go to the place you chose?
2. What can they do there on their date?
3. How can they make their date fun and special?
4. Is this place good for a date in summer and in winter?

8 Read the second dialogue and answer

Sarah and Jack

Sarah: Hey, Jack! I had a great time yesterday.

Jack: Me too, Sarah! I really enjoyed talking to you.

Sarah: I'm happy to hear that! I was thinking, how about we go out again next Saturday afternoon? There's a new romantic comedy playing at the cinema, and I thought it would be fun to see it together. The movie starts at 3 PM.

Jack: That sounds like a good idea! What's the movie called?

Sarah: It's called Love Actually. I heard it's really sweet and funny. We could eat something before the movie too. There's a nice Italian restaurant near the cinema. How about we meet there at 2 PM?

Jack: Italian sounds great! 2 PM next Saturday works for me. I'll be there.

1. Why did Sarah want to go to the movies for their next date?

2. What else could Sarah suggest for their date?

3. What time does the movie start?

4. What kind of food do you think is at the Italian restaurant?

5. What do you think of Sarah's date idea?

6. What would be your ideal date?

9 Ask and answer

Talk with a partner about your own experiences.

1. Are most of your friends single or married?
2. Have you or someone you know ever been on a blind date?
3. What's a memorable date you've been on, or what would make one special?
4. Describe the appearance of someone you know.
5. Have you or someone you know used a dating app?